We are delighted to present a rare and versatile opportunity to purchase a property offering three separate living spaces in one. This unique estate is ideal for extended families, rental income, or those seeking a flexible living arrangement. The main house features two front entrances, each leading to independent areas. The primary residence offers three spacious bedroomsâ€”two located on the ground floor and one upstairs with its own private terraceâ€”alongside a generously sized open-plan living room, a large fully equipped kitchen, and an entrance hall. The kitchen opens directly onto the garden, creating a bright and airy atmosphere perfect for indoor-outdoor living. The second section of the house is a...(Ask for More Details!)
