We are delighted to present a rare and versatile opportunity to purchase a property offering three separate living spaces in one. This unique estate is ideal for extended families, rental income, or those seeking a flexible living arrangement. The main house features two front entrances, each leading to independent areas. The primary residence offers three spacious bedrooms—two located on the ground floor and one upstairs with its own private terrace—alongside a generously sized open-plan living room, a large fully equipped kitchen, and an entrance hall. The kitchen opens directly onto the garden, creating a bright and airy atmosphere perfect for indoor-outdoor living. The second section of the house is a...(Ask for More Details!)
