The grounds: An electric gate provides access to the fully fenced, spacious grounds. The garden area surrounds the villa and is planted with, among other things, many almond trees. There is a carport and ample additional parking. A garden shed provides storage, and there is also a stone shed by the pool. This spacious shed includes battery storage for the solar panels behind it and offers ample space for a fitness room, for example. Of course, a swimming pool “with a surrounding terrace and outdoor shower” is a must. A very spacious gazebo is situated by the pool, and this covered area with a kitchen/bar area offers a fantastic...(Ask for More Details!)
