We have added some photos to show how this lovely country house could look after reform, and as you can see this can become a stunning dream property. Â This is a lovely country house still being renovated whilst keeping a lot of the rustic features. Â The house sits on a large plot , you enter via electric gate into the plot and down a gravel driveway to the house. In front is the 8m x4m swimming pool and the walled courtyard garden area of 70m2. With a large 11m x3m porch facing west, to make the most of the evening sun and sunsets, this covers the front of the house...(Ask for More Details!)
