We are pleased to present this lovely home Nestled in a peaceful hillside setting just outside the popular town of Aspe, this beautifully restored country home offers a rare blend of traditional character, modern comfort and spectacular panoramic views. Despite its tranquil location, Alicante Airport and the Mediterranean coastline are only around 35 minutes away. Set within a fully enclosed plot of approximately 3,151m², the property occupies an elevated position overlooking the surrounding countryside, creating a private and relaxing environment. The grounds also include covered parking for two vehicles and a large storage container, providing excellent practical space. The home offers approximately 337m² of accommodation arranged over two floors. Every...(Ask for
