We are proud to offer for sale this impressive large detached traditional stone house in the village of Raspay, situated on the Murcia side of the village. Being located within Murcia, the property benefits from the lower purchase tax rate of just 7. 75%, making this an attractive option for buyers looking for a substantial home with plenty to offer. Set within walking distance of the village centre, this beautifully maintained property combines traditional character with modern comforts. The house is fully walled, creating a wonderfully private and secluded setting, while still being right in the heart of village life. Being urban, the property also benefits from mains services and...(Ask for More Details!)
