A single-storey home created to enjoy the landscape, natural light and calmness of the Vega Baja. Villa Marco combines natural stone, warm tones and generous openings to the outdoors on an exceptionally spacious rural plot. Architecture with Mediterranean roots A calm, horizontal composition places the home naturally within its surroundings. Stone-clad volumes, timber tones and aromatic planting create a timeless identity, while broad glazing connects the living area, terrace and pool. At the heart of the home is a 44. 12 m² open-plan living, dining and kitchen area. The principal suite includes a dressing room and bathroom, while two further bedrooms are arranged around a landscaped courtyard and a second...(Ask for More Details!)
