This is a superb project, a very large townhouse that could either be for a big family or separated into two spacious apartments. The property has its front door on one street and its back door on another and there is loads of parking space available which can be difficult in Salinas. The ground floor has a kitchen, a large lounge/diner and two bedrooms and opens out to a courtyard that has three more rooms available. The floor above has three bedrooms possibly a fourth can be made as well as a lounge/kitchen/diner and bathroom. There is mains electricity and water still connected but no water pòint on the upper...(Ask for More Details!)
