We are very pleased to offer for sale this lovely, spacious and versatile property, currently arranged as a four-bedroom home but offering the potential to create up to seven bedrooms, depending on individual requirements. Several rooms are currently used for alternative purposes, including an office and a walk-through dressing room. However, the latter has its own access and could easily be converted into an additional bedroom, demonstrating the flexibility this property offers. Upon entering through the electric gates, you are greeted by a large, flat entrance area with ample space for parking. The driveway leads to the garage, underground pump room with additional storage, as well as a further storage...(Ask for More Details!)
